to be free and discharged of and from t said customs and subsidy, as he or they sha think fit to be meet and competent for eve of them after their degrees and qualities, an thing in this Act contained to the contra notwithstanding.

Provided also, that this Act, or any thi therein contained, shall not extend to charg any person or persons with any penalty o forfeiture for or concerning any matter o thing done contrary to the tenour of this Act or any part thereof, unless the party or par ties offending, shall be sued or prosecuted fo the same within twelve months after such matter or thing shall be done and committed as aforesaid, any thing in this Act, or any o ther Law, custom, or Usage whatsoever t the contrary notwithstanding.

And because by experience it is found, that the hindering of merchants, strangers, and others, from bending his or their goods, without offering them first to some Burgess, or Freeman of such City, Corporation, o Town, where such merchant, stranger, or other, do arribe with his or their goods, (commonly known by the name of Town-bargain,) bargain,) is very destructive to the Trade and commerce of this Realm, and very pre-judicial to your Majesties Revenue.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the said first day of December, one thousand six hundred sixty one, no such Town-bargain shall be required, nor any Merchant, or other, hindered or with-held from disposing of his or their Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, without offering them as aforesaid; but that all and every Merchant, stranger, or other, importing any goods, wares, or Merchandizes from beyond the Seas, and paying all duties by law due and payable thereupon, shall and may from time to time, and at all times at his and their will and pleasure, freely and without let, molestation, or hinderance, sell and dispose of his or their Goods, and Merchandizes, any Charter, Custom, Usage, Priviledge or liberty of or unto any City or Town Corporate at any time made, given, granted, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And forasmuch as several antient duties under the name of Town and petty customs, due and payable by Merchants strangers unto several Cities, and Towns corporate of this your Majesties Realm, have been, and are demanded, received, and taken by their Farmors Deputies, or Officers, in a far greater quantity, and proportion, then is of right belonging, in respect the same have been, and are required upon more Goods then are truly lyable thereunto, and according to the Rates after which the customs have been from time to time increased, and paid unto your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors, which exceed far the ancient Rates according to which such petty customs can be required, and taken.

Be it further Enacted, and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, that from henceforth no such petty customs be demanded, received or paid, for, or upon any more, or other Commodities then were chargeable with the same by antient custom and prescription, and not according to the increase of his Majesties customs, by his Majesties book of Rates nor for any Wares or Commodities, by virtue of any grant but such as were charged at the time of the Grant made by your Majesties Royal predecessors of such petty customs, unto any citty or Town corporate, nor at any other or greater Rate or Rates, then the same were either payed, or answered by the Merchants strangers

Strangers at the time of the respective granting of the same, or as the same were taken, in the fifteenth year of the late King Henry the seventh, any grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding, upon pain that every person or persons demanding, or receiving more, or greater petty customs, then as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such offence, double the value of what shall be exacted, or received upon more commodities, or at greater rates then as aforesaid; saving unto Wentworth Earl of Kildare, and the Heirs Males of the body of Gerald Fitz. Gerald Earl of Kildare, all such Estate, Right and Title of, in, and to the great and little customs poundages subsidies, duties, together with the Cocquet, and power of constituting Officers thereunto belonging there, the Ports, and Harbours, of Strangford, and Ardglass, in the county of Down, and Province of Ulster, and the creeks and members thereunto appertaining, as they, or any of them can or may claim, or demand, by, or under any Letters Patents thereof made by King Henry the Eight unto the said Gerald Fitz. Gerald Earl of Kildare, as fully and amply as the same was granted in and by such Letters Patents, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
